

Change to Catella's group management

Catella's CFO Ando Wikström has resigned at his own request to become a partner in a business within the property industry that does not compete with Catella. Ando's successor will be announced separately. As a consequence, Ando leaves Catella's group management and the responsibilities of the CFO will be taken on until further notice by the President and CEO Knut Pedersen.

"I regret that Ando has decided to leave Catella, where he has been a valuable and respected employee for 14 years, including 5 years in the group management," says Knut Pedersen, President and CEO at Catella.
