

Catella advised AIG in sale of property in Helsinki to Sagax

Catella has acted as advisor to American International Group Inc. (AIG) in the sale of a property in Finland. The buyer was property company Sagax, and the purchase price amounted to SEK 106 million. The property includes office, industrial and warehouse premises of 5,200 square metres and is situated in Vantaa, just north of Helsinki. Catella's Swedish and Finnish teams acted as advisors to AIG in the transaction.

“It’s incredibly exciting to carry through this transaction on behalf of AIG in a joint project with our Swedish and Finnish advisory teams. It clearly shows the strength of Catella as an international advisory firm,” says Andrew Smith, Partner at Catella and Catella’s project manager for the transaction.
